The Anguilla Tennis Academy announces this year's Summer Tennis Camp

ANGUILLA—This year's tennis camp organized by the Anguilla Tennis Academy by President Michelle Lake and Programme Director, Vallan Hodge, is scheduled for July 11-29. It is open to children aged from five to seventeen years. The local coaches will be conducting sessions for the first two weeks and in the third and final week will be joined by international coaches from Dallas, Chicago and Philadelphia.

The Summer Tennis Camp will be held at the Anguilla Tennis Academy facility at Blowing Point. There are times for different age groups and each participant will receive a T shirt and a certificate. They will also have the opportunity to win prizes donated by Wilson Sporting Goods and scholarships to attend the 2011/2012 After School Programme. Registration is US$50.00.
