

Exhibition tennis match held at CuisinArt

ANGUILLA—Tennis lovers in Anguilla were delighted to attend an exhibition match at CuisinArt Resort on Friday May 5 featuring visiting tennis player, Zina Garrison.

It was a doubles match between Garrison and Mitchelle Lake against Jason Allen and Denny Derick. The many spectators admired the level of play and applauded often. The one set match went to a tie break and was eventually won by Garrison and Lake.

Garrison was the number one junior Wimbledon champion in 1981, has won 14 single and 20 doubles events during her career including a gold medal at the 1988 Olympics. Her highest ranking was number four in the world. She is currently a member of the board of the United States Tennis Association and is the captain of the USA Fed Cup Team. She has been in Anguilla, coaching the children in the ATA (Anguilla Tennis Academy) tennis programme and giving suggestions for the development of the programme.
